PARTICIPATION

Participant would log on www.budweiser.com.ng/kofshow, and register; a selected participant would come along with 2 other buddies (a team).

Each week four (4) teams would be randomly selected from registered participants; the selected teams would be required to come to a recording studio where sets of football questions would be asked.

The 2 best teams would be selected to participate at the Game Show on the King of Football Program where both teams would then go head to head, answering football related questions.

Each question has a price tag and the team that answers the question correctly banks the money associated with the question. The more question a team answers correctly, the more money the team wins.

At the end of the game, each team walks away with what they have earned based on the questions they have answered correctly.

- Selected Participants coming in from outside Lagos would be responsible for their own expenses (transport, accommodation & living).

PRIZE BREAKDOWN

The opportunity to win ₦1,000,000 (One Million Naira); each team is able to win cash prizes based on the number of questions answered.

PRIZE REDEMPTION

- The winnings will be transferred to the bank account of the team leader (the Participant who registered) within four working days of participating.
